Autohaus ashton VW conversion 2012 4 berth campervan with pop-top roof so you can still get under height barriers or use the campervan as a daily driver. Covering 78500 miles from new, everything feels nice and tight on the road with no knocks, a very well looked after VW. The layout of this camper is slightly different to the many rock and roll conversions. This has a push up double bunk that can be pushed up out the way when not in use to allow for standing. Down the bottom there is 6 traveling seats with the rear bench seat folding to allow for the bottom bed to made up. Under the bed foam (which rolls up out the way when not in use) is the camper unit. this has a big fold up for storage, a 12v cool box for the drinks, a one burner hob for the kettle or cooking and powered by the camping gaz bottle seen in the photos. There is also a sink with fresh water and waste tanks. great for days out and camping holidays. Comes with a porta potti to so there is no getting caught short. All ...
